

Signing Ceremony of Japan Grant Aid for “the Economic and Social Development Programme”

The signing ceremony of Japan Grant Aid for “the Economic and Social Development Programme” was held at the Islamic Republic of Iran Customs Administration in Tehran on 8 March 2017.

For the purpose of enhancing cargo inspection system, as contraband and drug smuggling countermeasures and security inspection, as well as expediting customs procedures, the Government of Japan decided to donate the amount of 800 million Japanese Yen to the Islamic Republic of Iran Customs Administration in order to provide the required equipment to Chabahar Port.

H.E. Hiroyasu KOBAYASHI, Ambassador of Japan and H.E. Mr. Masoud KARBASIANI, Deputy Minister of Economic Affairs and Finance and President of the Islamic Republic of Iran Customs Administration delivered speeches in this signing ceremony and then signed the Exchange of Notes.

Ambassador KOBAYASHI delivering the speech

Photo Session after Signing the Exchanging of Notes