

Lecture by Dr. Nishioka, Senior Research Adviser, IGES

The lecture titled “Way to Low Carbon Society: Challenge of World, Iran and Japan” by Dr. Nishioka, Senior Research Adviser, Institute for Global Environmental Strategies IGES, Japan was held at University of Tehran on 15 October, also at Sharif University of Technology and Department of Environment on 16 October 2016. Academic officials such as professors, students, as well as governmental officials concerned in climate change issue participated in this lecture and had a lively exchange of views with Dr. Nishioka.

The lecture at University of TEHRAN

The lecture at Sharif University of Technology

The lecture at Department of Environment