

Visit of H.E. Mr. Kinichi Komano, Ambassador of Japan to Iran and Mr. Koichi Kanno, Head of Japanese Association in Tehran to the quake-hit areas in North West of Iran

On August 24th 2012, H.E. Mr. Komano, Ambassador of Japan to Iran and Mr. Kanno, Head of Japanese association in Tehran, visited East Azerbaijan province, north western of Iran, where the earthquake took place. Some aides were given to the officials of the Red Crescent Society on behalf of the Embassy of Japan in Iran and volunteers from the Japanese association in Tehran. They also visited the quake-hit areas.

H.E. Mr. Komano, Ambassador of Japan to Iran met Ayatollah Shabestari, Friday prayer leader of East Azerbaijan province and Mr. Hasseinpour, Deputy Head of aid and rescue team of the Red Crescent Society in East Azerbaijan province and expressed deep condolences and sympathy for the injured and fatalities of the earthquake. After giving some reports regarding the aids which were send to the officials at the Red Crescent Society from the Japanese government, the aids brought by Mr. Kanno were given to the officials of the Red Crescent Society.

By visiting two villages, Kamanjolia and Olikandi, Ambassador Komano, received some reports regarding the damages, lost and support operation and met the afflicted people there.

Handing aids to the Red Crescent Society

Visiting an earthquake-hit area, Kamanjolia

Visiting an earthquake-hit area, Olikandi