

Embassy of Japan in Iran Holds Delivery Ceremony of the Emergency Relief Goods for the Northwest Iran Earthquake

The embassy of Japan in Iran held the Delivery Ceremony of the Emergency Goods for the Northwest Iran earthquake on 22th August from in Mann Group's Factory in Tehran. H.E. Ambassador Komano and Mr. Takeuchi, president of JICA in Iran, attended the ceremony from Japanese side. Mr. Saeed Matany, Deputy Head of Relief and Rescue Organization Iranian Red Crescent Society, Mr. Pourkhanali, Director General International Operations & Humanitarian Program and Mr. Ghalamizadeh, expert of Japan Desk Third East Asia & Oceania Department of MOFA also attended in this ceremony from Iranian side.

H.E. Ambassador Komano, while expressing his deepest sympathies to victims and their families said that he was shocked and deeply saddened from huge number of victims of the several earthquakes in northwest Iran. Although 100 mobile toilets (including showers) may be little aid, but I wish they could contribute to victims who lost their houses.

Embassy of Japan, JICA, Iranian Red Crescent Society and MOFA signed on a letter. JICA delivered mobile toilets (including showers) to Iranian Red Crescent Society

【Reference】

The Government of Japan decided on 17th August 2012, in response to the request of the Government of Islamic Republic of Iran, provide through the Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA) emergency relief goods which are 100 mobile toilets (including showers), equivalent to approximately 18 million Japanese yen (approximately U.S.$ 225,000) in total to Iran.

Japanese Ambassador giving speech

mobile toilets (including showers)